TOBACCO CROP SOLD

Season's Yield In Hopkins County Goes To Liverpool And Belfast.

Madisonville, Ky., Aug. 19.—The entire holdings of the Tobacco Association in this district has been sold, it is announced, and a large sum of money will be paid out early in September. The amount of advance has not been published, but the price is satisfactory. Two hundred and ninety hogsheads were shipped to Belfast, Ireland, and three hundred and forty hogsheads to Liverpool. The prospects are good for a tobacco pool in Hopkins county, with the Stemming District Association. The newly elected Chairman, B. D. Coffman, is making a thorough canvass of the county. A big rally will be held here August 26th, to settle the matter. Prominent speakers will discuss the issues of the pool. At a recent meeting, it was found that 60 per cent of crop is already pooled with prospects for even a larger per cent. The meeting of Aug. 26th, will decide whether or not the pool will stand.

LEVI COOK
JEWELER.

Murderer at 17—For Clothes.

Paul Geidel, New York's latest murderer, is only seventeen years old. As bellboy at the Iroquois Hotel, he noticed that William H. Jackson, an aged widower and stock broker, appeared always to have money. Geidel entered the aged man's room about 9:30 one evening, sneaked up to the bed and thrust a cloth soaked with chloroform over his face.

"I think we must have fought for fifteen minutes," said Geidel, in his confession. "I hit him with my fists and, finally, when he fell, I jabbed the cloth way down his throat. I didn't intend to kill him. I wanted the money for clothes. I wanted to dress well like the guests at the hotel. I only got $24.75."

Geidel told the police he had a mother and sister living at Farmington, Conn. He is the second boy murderer in New York within the year. Albert Wolter, eighteen, murdered a fifteen-year-old girl, who came to his apartment in answer to an advertisement for a stenographer.

Section 13—Temperance is essentially a moral, non-political and social question, and should not be made a partisan issue between political parties.

We favor the extension of the present local option law, as applied to the sale of liquor, which has been upheld by our highest court as valid and constitutional, so that the citizens of each and every county in the state may determine for themselves whether spirituous, vinous or malt liquors may be sold therein.

Bad Off to Dance.

Quincy, Ills., Aug. 22.—Two hundred passenger of the steamer St. Paul, which struck a snag in the Mississippi river yesterday and went down in five feet of water, sang and danced aboard the sunken hulk until the small hours this morning. The boat's orchestra furnished the music. When the vessel filled with water, the passengers made no effort to reach shore. They moved to the upper decks where they will wait until the boat is again floated. The pumps were working all night and it is expected that the trip may be resumed today. The boat was bound from St. Louis to St. Paul.

Fell Eleven Stories.

Only Slightly Hurt.

New Haven, Conn., Aug. 21.—Fisher, employed on the new Hotel Taft, in course of construction here fell eleven stories last night and escaped with a slight cut over an eye. Fisher was on a hoisting elevator which broke at the eighth floor, and fell to a sub-cellar. Workmen rushed to the cellar, expecting to find Fisher dead, but reached there just in time to see him disentangle himself from the wreckage.

From Delia Clements, in Myra, Texas.

Myra, Tex., Aug. 17, 1911.

Mr. S. M. Jenkins,

Marion, Ky.

Dear Marshal:—Find enclosed a dollar bill for which please continue to send me the Record-Press for 1912. I see that Kentucky has endured a severe drouth. Not in the history of the State, nor when the memory of man runneth not to the contrary has Texas suffered so long continued and disastrous a drouth as the one seemingly just breaking up. There are greater acres in Texas than the State of Kentucky, in size where the corn crop is a complete failure, cotton has stood the drouth and will make a fine crop.

We have recently passed through one of the hardest fought State wide prohibition campaigns that any State ever had and out of 500,000 votes cast the anti only beat us 6000. In 1887 in a like contest the constitutional amendment was defeated by 95,000 votes, so you see the change of sentiment in our state under our present local option laws the greater part of Texas at present, is dry, but in the greater cities there is little hope of ever putting the saloons out by local option, since we are rolling up our sleeves for another scrap just as soon as the preliminaries can be arranged. But excuse me our campaign is over I did not mean to make a prohibition speech. Come on with the Press.

Struck on Head.

Providence, Ky., Aug. 12.—While watching the races at the fair today, Dave Woods of Christian county was struck on the head by some unknown person. His head was severely cut and it is believed the hit was with either a beer bottle or with a pair of brass knucks.

He Fires Twenty-one

Guns When Baby Comes.

Indianapolis, Aug. 22.—To prepare to announce the expected arrival of a male heir, Pantels L. Cafourous, a Greek, appeared before the board of safety here and asked permission to fire 21 guns when his son arrives. The Greek was all smiles and acted as if he had advance information on the sex of the package to be delivered at his home by the stork. Cafourous said he would not fire the salute if his heir was a girl.

Chicago to Have The Finest

Hospital in The World.

Chicago, Aug. 25.—Plans for Cook county's new $3,000,000 hospital, to be built on the site of the present structure on the West Side, have been completed and the architects declare it will be the largest and finest institution of the kind in the world. Work on the new building will begin in a few weeks. There will be accommodations for 8,000 patients.

FRIENDS OF Wm.

CHRON TAKE NOTICE

Postmaster Crider Received The Following Letter And Handed to us For Publication.

Howland, Texas.

Mr. Postmaster:—I will drop you a few lines if you know anything of Wm. Chron, please write and tell me. He is dead, he died while I was there. I am his widow. He died several years ago and I moved from there to Tennessee and there to Texas. One of his boys is in trouble and I want a recommendation. Please help me all you can. You will find him to be a peaceable, harmless man. If you will make an inquiry about him, make an inquiry if they are living, to Adams, Stovalls, Phillips, Hills, Criders, Brookshires, Youngs, Thomasons, Bradfords and Tom Cameron.

that use to keep store there, he knew him well, Dr. Dean, Cruces and Rogers. If you can find those people, they all knew Chron well, what kind of a man he was. There are lot more of names if I could think of them, that knew Chron. Please help me all you can and I will be so much obliged to you. I will put a stamp in this letter for you to answer this letter with. I want this by the first of September.

Yours Respectfully,
MRS. N. J. MORTON,

CROSSES CONTINENT TO

GET A HUSBAND.

Fifteen-Year-Old Vera Clark, of Paducah, Makes Trip to Portland.

Portland, Oreg., August 22.—Beautiful 15-yr-old Vera Clark, of Paducah, Ky., answered a matrimony advertisement inserted in a magazine by W. G. Delaney, a blacksmith living at 63 1-2 North Sixth street, and yesterday the little bride-to-be arrived after the long trip across the continent to meet her husband-to-be whom she had not yet seen. But Vera arrived at the North Bank depot and her lover waited in vain at the Union depot as a result the two did not meet, and the young woman was sent to the Y. M. C. A. for care until she could meet friends. The woman in the department of public safety refused to allow the young woman to marry Delaney. Delaney had not met the girl until late today. Finally the authorities relented and the two embraced with a kiss. Later they sought a minister.

Stepping on a rusty nail has been the cause of many cases of lockjaw. The nail was not so much the fault as neglect of the wound. If such wounds were promptly cleansed and BAL-LARD'S SNOW LINIMENT applied there would be no lockjaw, as the antiseptic properties of the liniment would counteract the poison and the wound would heal quickly. Price 25c., 50c., and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by J. H. Orme, Marion, Ky.

STEMMING DISTRICT

Sells Tobacco Crop—Growers Get $6.50 a Hundred Pounds From Irish Co.

Henderson, Ky., Aug. 17.—The district stemming association, embracing Henderson, Union, Webster, Hopkins and Crittenden counties, today sold the pooled crop, which is 80 per cent of the tobacco grown in this district to the Gallaher Co., of Belfast, Ireland. The price is $6.50 a hundred pounds. In June the association refused all offers for the crop, the average price mentioned then being $3 a hundred. By holding out, the growers have been vastly benefitted. All things considered, the price is regarded as good. There are 10,000 growers in the association.
